

Humanising Care, Health and Wellbeing conference

29-30th June

Titles of presentations to date

"What's the sense of humour?"

Adult nursing students' values from selection to qualification: a longitudinal study of how students describe their values when exposed to a curriculum based on a humanising philosophy

Beautiful Being: Nature, presence, and the aesthetics of care

Cancer survivorship from a perspective of shared humanity

Compassionate community, Zen and chaplaincy: Working with Humanization Principles in the Community

Creating and sharing digital stories: Innovation in midwifery education that supports student midwives academic creativity and woman centred practice.

Creative Arts and Dementia – A Project Overview

Embodiment and humanisation: reflections from midwifery

Exploring the unique physical, emotional and financial implications of facing cancer while alone: an integrated approach to qualitative research and art-based enquiry

Getting the measure of therapy on stroke units

Human Henge: Cultural heritage therapy and its' impact upon mental health and wellbeing

Humanisation of Higher education: It is easy if you try!

Humanisation of Mental Health Care through Person Centred Psychiatry – An Interdisciplinary Approach from a Nursing Perspective

Humanising care and culture: how can the humanisation framework support organisational change from board to ward

Humanising care: Translating theory into practice to support caring and creativity in a stroke service

Humanising Phenomenological analysis: using focus groups, food, and drink to collect data for Dialogical and Interpretative Phenomenological Analysis (IPA)

Is There Welfare State 3?

Kindliness in Dorset –Enabling neighbourliness and peer support in sheltered housing

'My Bones Won't Break Me:' My Experience of Living with Osteoporosis as a Young Active Female

'Pausing to connect' - Developing relational knowing on a stroke unit

Promoting compassionate care: UK and Czech Republic educational case studies

Reducing health inequalities through public health practice - the role of the Lifeworld

The Humanisation of me: reflections on my D.Prof experience

The Older Male Carers Story Project

The role of the Expert Companion for relatives of people with a severe brain injury: humanising practice to create a cogent "neuro-narrative"

Towards the 'abiding expanse': treatment components and processes in the 'HeART of Stroke' feasibility trial to support confidence and wellbeing post stroke

Understanding masculinities to enable social inclusion in older men with dementia