

Social Work in Palestine

The second national conference of the Palestine-UK Social Work Network

Tuesday 12 November 2013

10.00am-4.30pm

Registration and refreshments from 9.15am

Conference fee: £15/£5 unwaged

Vegetarian lunch
(included in the fee)
provided by the famous
Madras Cafe (WOMAD)

At Amnesty International's
Human Rights Action Centre
17-25 New Inn Yard, London EC2A 3EA

Speakers to include:

- ◆ Issa Bishara Rabady, International Liaison Officer, Palestinian Union of Social Workers and Psychologists, Jerusalem
- ◆ Nihaya Aburayyan, Social Worker & Narrative Therapist, Medecins San Frontieres, Palestine
- ◆ Jane Lindsay, Acting Head of the School of Social Work, Kingston University and author of numerous chapters and articles on social work in Palestine
- ◆ Victoria Brittain & Betty Hunter, Action for Palestinian Children
- ◆ Mohamed Altawil & David Harrold, Palestine Trauma Centre (UK)
- ◆ More speakers to be confirmed plus a range of workshops led by UK-based social workers who have visited Palestine.

This major conference bringing together social workers and other interested parties from Palestine and the UK will build on the successful, sell-out launch event in Durham in November 2012. The UK branch of the Palestine-UK Social Work Network are delighted to be welcoming social work colleagues from Palestine to deliver plenary addresses and share their experiences with us.

To find out more and to book your place please email us at palukswnetwork@gmail.com, writing Conference 2013 in the subject box

To find the venue and information on how to get there, go to <http://www.amnesty.org.uk/content.asp?CategoryID=10151>